

BULK WEDDING FLOWERS PACKET

We specialize in growing one-of-a-kind flowers inspired by the seasons. Our bulk wedding flower option is perfect for couples who love fresh-from-the-garden style, and have the desire, skills, and time to design their own wedding florals. This option is not well-suited for couples who want very specific flower types, require an in-person consultation, or have more complex design needs.

Simply tell us about your color palette, preferred style, and the quantities of material you need. Based on the flower quantities you need and the budget you have to work with, we will put together a flower cost estimate for you. Once the order is finalized and your deposit is made, we will put together a beautiful selection of flowers and foliage based on the best of what's growing the week of your wedding.

Orders are available for pickup at our shop in Plymouth, WI. Delivery is available for an additional fee.

On the following page, you'll find everything you need to get started.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions. We look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,
Jenn and Lake Girl Gardens Team
